

John Garrett, CPA

Lives “Outside the Box”

This accountant broke out of his cubicle to become a nationally touring Stand-up Comedian

- Former CPA, now full-time comedian.
- Tailored material with an interactive game.
- Clean and Funny.
- Heard on national radio.

Being a Certified Public Accountant with a sense of humor makes John unique. Being a Certified Public Accountant that is a standup comedian makes his parents nervous.

John realized that he found more enjoyment in making fun of Corporate America than he did in being a Senior Financial Analyst. It was pretty obvious that verifying the accuracy of a General Ledger report was not for him. So he left the cubicle world to perform at corporate events across the country.

Since then, John has been heard on The Bob & Tom Radio Network, seen in concert with Train, opened for Louie Anderson at resort casinos, and participated in The Boston Comedy Festival. Tracks from his debut comedy album, Outside the Box, can be heard on XM Satellite Radio.

Audiences everywhere find that he is the adorably obnoxious guy they wish they had in their boring office, unless of course they were his manager. His unmatched facial expressions and uniquely clean observations of the people around him have left audiences in hysterics while looking at everyday things with a disturbingly new perspective.

Here is what people are saying about John:

“...perfect performance for any corporate event.”
– ALMH Hospital

“...extraordinary entertainer.”
– Silvon Software, Inc.

“...one of the best we have ever had.”
– Andrews, Hooper & Pavlik

“His act was clean, directed at our audience, and hilarious.”
– Katz, Sapper & Miller

“It was immediately clear that our guests enjoyed John’s humor.”
– W. Newell & Company
